28th June 2020 - Organised National Webinar on "Threats, Opportunities and Challenges before Librarians and Academicians Amidst Corona Conundrum"

Sharanabasaveshwar College of Commerce, Kalaburagi

Report of the National Webinar "THREATS, OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES BEFORE LIBRARIANS AND ACADEMICIANS AMIDST CORONA CONUNDRUM" –

Library Webinar - A Report

Organised One Day National Library Webinar on "THREATS, OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES BEFORE LIBRARIANS AND ACADEMICIANS AMIDST CORONA CONUNDRUM" on 4th July 2020 between 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. This webinar was conducted under the auspices of Dr. Dasharath Mehtry, the IQAC Co-ordinator, as a part of the IQAC initiative of the college. Mr. Veeresh Hiremath, the Librarian, of the college was the Organizing Secretary of this webinar. The webinar was organised to subdue and allay the threats and fears of 'Corona' amongst the Teachers, the Librarians and the Academic Community as a whole and imbue them with a sense of confidence to accept and meet the challenges thrown open by the pandemic.

Dr. Pratibha Gokhale, a renowned academician, having a chequered career of over 40 years as an Information Scientist; Head of the Department of Library and Information Science Mumbai University; Mumbai University Librarian; Yoga Teacher; Public Speaker on topics of Public Interest and so on, was the Resource Person for this Webinar.

There were good number of registrations for this webinar across the length and breadth of the country (514 to be precise). Though this webinar was projected as a National Webinar, there were four more registrations (Three from Nigeria and One from Sharjha, UAE) too. The actual participation was numbered at three hundred and fifty-six (356). The participants included, teachers, Sales Managers, librarians – professionals, semi-professionals, students, research scholars etc.

The webinar began with the formal welcoming of the speaker, the participants and then with the brief introduction of the Resource Person, Dr. Gokhale by Dr. N S Patil, Principal Sharanbasaveshwar College of Commerce, Kalaburagi. Thereafter, Dr. Gokhale, began the webinar with the definition of the pandemic - "Corona" and the havoc created by it in everyone's life. After a brief explanation of the sociological, physical, psychological, financial impact of the pandemic, the speaker emphasised on the Educational impact of the pandemic. The speaker gravely noted that 1.5 billion students, accounting to nearly 87% of enrolled learners were affected by this pandemic worldwide. (UNESCO Statistics).

As far as Academics and Libraries were concerned, the speaker noted that the threat the pandemic would have on, was on the student's turnout to Academic institutions and Libraries and that the real challenge lied ahead in allaying the fears of the students and professionals alike, creating awareness about the pandemic amongst them and restructuring and gearing up oneself to meet the service requirement of the clientele without compromising on the quality.

She noted that these things will come at a high cost of Mental and Physical Pressure and Financial burden on the Academicians and Administrators.

She further stressed on the need for virtual and remote learning, developing the library services as one 'Universal Access Point' for the institution; forming strong consortia base for enhanced access to e-journals and negotiating licensing policy with aggregators for Open Access; designing of systematic access to Internet resources for web portals, subject portals, subject gateways, archival material, non-book material for end users and evolving methodology for content creation, web content management and creation of knowledge base for the institution. The speaker also touched upon user centred Value-added E Services, management of optical resources especially during the pandemic, offering remote services to the users, designing of new library service programs for the users promoting health and hygiene issues amongst the user base.

The speaker finally winded up urging participants to take this situation created by this pandemic as a challenge and as also as an opportunity to build a safe, hygienic, nature friendly environment for one and all. Few questions from participants were taken up by the speaker. Thereafter, the webinar concluded with a vote of thanks to the Management, the Organizers, the Resource Person and the all Participants by Mr. Dayanand Hodal, the Principal, Sharanabasaveshwar P U College, Kalaburagi.

A feedback of the seminar was obtained from the participants. The Feedback points at this webinar being highly informative and efficacious to the participants. Some of them suggested us to organize many more such useful sessions in future too. Finally, Certificate of Participation was sent to participants on their registered E-mail Id.
